The following rules are to be adhered to by all Cook-Off participants:

- 1. Entrants may be individuals or teams of no more than 3 members.
2. The entry fee will be $25.00 per entrant (individual or team of up to 3 people). There will be Judge's Choice, People's Favorite, and Best Decorated Booth awards.
3. Sign-in and booth set up begins at 10:30 am and set up of your assigned area must be complete, with chili ready to serve to official judges, by 11:00 am. Tables and chairs will be supplied, but teams are asked to bring their own tent/canopy. Creativity in set-up is encouraged and will be judged for the Best Decorated Booth Award. All entrants must serve chili until 1:00 pm or until chili is gone.
4. All meat must be obtained from USDA approved sources.
5. A listing of ingredients used to make the chili must be displayed. Quantities do not need to be included.
6. All ingredients must be pre-cooked & treated prior to the event – chili is to be brought hot and "ready-to-eat". Disposable chafing dishes will be provided to keep your chili hot.
7. Spoons, cups and napkins, for use in serving chili to the public, will be provided.
8. Each contestant must cook a minimum of 2 gallons of chili.
9. Each contestant will be assigned a "contestant's number" and a container in which their chili will be collected at the time of the official judging. Each contestant should verify that the number on the bottom of their container is the same as their contestants' number assigned to them at registration.
10. The decision of the judges is final.
11. Each contestant is responsible for cleaning up their area at the end of the day and removing all items from the area.

Your entry fee of $25 per booth site should be made payable to:
